NEW EXHIBIT AT MENDOCINO COUNTY MUSEUM Natural Expressions: Art Inspired by Mendocino County Showing: November 2 - March 15

From the Mendocino County Museum's permanent collection, Natural Expressions: Art Inspired by Mendocino County exhibit features arts and crafts showcasing the beauty and diversity of Mendocino County's landscapes and resources. The art exhibit includes paintings, fiber art, and various crafts made from Mendocino County's rich natural resources such as mushrooms, driftwood, shells, redwood, and leather.

Works from beloved Mendocino County artists such as Lorenzo Latimer, Grace Hudson, and Mark Walker will be on display. In addition, nature inspired weaving, quilting, woodworking, and leatherworking will be exhibited.

To celebrate the new exhibit opening, the Museum will offer FREE admission on Saturday, November 2, 2019. Visitors will be invited to participate in a FREE nature inspired art craft from 1:00 – 3:00 pm in the Museum's new Interactive Room.

Natural Expressions: Art Inspired by Mendocino County will be showing at the Mendocino County Museum November 2, 2019 – March 15, 2020. Please see our exhibit program calendar for arts and crafts programs that will be held in conjunction with the exhibit.
