

Statement for January 20 Free America Walk-out Day

Thank you for your civic engagement and activism! I'm very grateful to have such dedicated and patriotic constituents. Coming together and standing up for our democracy in this moment is more important than ever.

I am in Washington this week, but I join with all of you in opposing the corruption, cruelty and recklessness of Donald Trump and his administration. Voting to impeach him twice was a very obvious and easy decision for me, and I will not hesitate to do it again if there is an opportunity.

Our democracy, fundamental rights, and the livability of our planet are under assault right now, and each of us has an important role to play in meeting this moment. Rest assured that I will continue leading the fight in Washington to defend the laws, policies and institutions we count on for a functioning democracy. The power of civic engagement and public opinion is perhaps our greatest bulwark against fascism, so I am especially grateful for all of my constituents who are peacefully mobilizing to make your voices heard.

Please look for my video on my social media channels later today on ways I am fighting against ICE in Congress, including voting NO on the Department of Homeland Security budget, cosponsoring a bill to impeach Kristi Noem, and more.

My staff and I always welcome your feedback and engagement. Please call 707-962-0933 or email Huffman.response@mail.house.gov for assistance.

Keep it up.

Respectfully,
